

Brief Profile of Dr. SUKHPAL SINGH

Sukhpal Singh, Ph D (Economics) at Centre for Management in Agriculture (CMA), IIM, Ahmedabad, has 16 years of teaching, training, research, and consultancy experience in agribusiness development/management and has worked for FAO, ILO, and World Bank. Has published 80 research papers, and 5 books, besides 50 review articles and articles. Was visiting fellow at the IDS, Sussex, and Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok and presented lead/key note papers in 20 international and national conferences/workshops. Was a member of the Working Groups/Committees of the Planning Commission, GoI and the National Development Council (NDC). Was founding member of an NGO- PROGRESS for 5 years and is now President, Satvik, an NGO promoting sustainable agriculture. Is Member of the editorial board of Diaspora Studies, a journal of Organisation for Diaspora Initiatives (ODI). Has research interest in agribusiness chains and their governance focusing on small producer participation.